AMERICAN ADVERTISING AWARDS

STUDENT DIVISION

STUDENT RULES & CATEGORIES 2015–2016

The mission of the American Advertising Awards Student Division competition is to recognize and reward creative excellence in the art of advertising.

Conducted annually by the American Advertising Federation (AAF) and sponsored by National Ad2, the local American Advertising Awards Student Division is the first of a three-tier, national competition. Concurrently, all across the country, local student entrants vie for recognition as the very best in their markets. At the second tier, local student winners compete against other student winners in one of 15 district competitions. District student winners are then forwarded to the third — national— tier. Entry in your local Student competition is the first step toward winning a national Student ADDY Award.

Entering the American Advertising Awards competition supports our entire industry, because the AAF and its local and district affiliates use the proceeds to enhance advertising through programs such as public service, internships, advocacy groups, advertising education, and consumer awareness.

Selection of the most creative entry in each category is effected by a scoring process in which a panel of judges evaluates all creative dimensions of every entry. A Student GOLD ADDY Award is recognition of the highest level of creative excellence and is judged to be superior to all other student entries in the category. Student entries that are also considered outstanding and worthy of recognition receive a Student SILVER ADDY Award. The number of awards given in each category is determined by the judges, based on the relative quality of work in that category.

The American Advertising Awards competition honors "The Creative Spirit of Advertising." It is intended for "original" creative work. Therefore entries derived from or making use of previously created and/or published pieces by anyone other than the entrant are not permitted. Copyright infringement and/or plagiarism (be it intentional or unintentional) will result in the disqualification and, if applicable, removal of awards from any entry deemed in violation. All entry fees will be forfeited.

How to Enter

www.aafsavannah.com

Visit www.AmericanAdvertisingAwards.com or your local ~~AAF Ad Club site~~. You will be directed to the competition site and login as a student entrant. Review the student category list to find where your work should compete, and follow the simple drop down menus to enter your information. Make sure you credit the members of your creative team, so that they will be recognized properly in press releases and other AAF winner publications. Submission of entries acknowledges the right of the AAF to use them for publication, exhibition and marketing of the American Advertising Awards competition.

Deadlines

Local deadline information is available from your local AAF Chapter. After preparing your entries in the manner outlined in this guide, deliver your entries, before the deadline, to the location indicated. Since you must enter your local American Advertising Awards competition to be eligible for district competition, it is important that you do not miss this deadline.

Please note: Comps, original photographs, illustrations, etc. all become the property of the AAF and will not be returned.

Any work created for the NSAC competition will be eligible for the next American Advertising Awards Student Division competition following the NSAC finals in June. For example, creative for the 2015 NSAC sponsor Pizza Hut is now eligible for the 2015-2016 American Advertising Awards Student Division competition.

Eligibility Requirements

- Applicants must be enrolled full or part-time in an accredited U.S. educational institution.
- All work entered into the competition must have been created between January 1 and December 21, 2015.
- Work may be developed specifically for this competition or submitted from previous projects or competitions.
- Work must be created while entrant is a student not employed in the advertising industry. Student intern work is eligible if it is not used by or paid for by a client. Work developed for paying clients will not be accepted with the exception of work created for clubs as a fundraiser or work created for student publications.
- Entries may be entered into only one local American Advertising Awards competition, which is determined by the location of the school at which the work was created. If an affiliated competition does not exist in the market (CBSA, DMA or MSA), the district will direct the entrant to the nearest affiliated competition.
- Recent graduates are eligible to enter as long as the entry was created while the entrant was a student during the 2015 calendar year and the entry meets all other requirements.

Shipment of Entries

Entries and entry fees should be sent to the address indicated by your local competition. All entries become the property of your local club, district, or the AAF and will not be returned. Do NOT send original artwork.

Student Auto-Forwarding

All Gold winning work will be forwarded to the district and national competition at no additional cost to the student entrant. Silver winning work may be advanced to the district or national competition but the entrant is responsible for paying the applicable entry fee.

Judging Procedures

Entry Submission & Identification

AAF is trying to make entering the Student American Advertising Awards competition as easy as possible for the entrants, judges and producers of the show on all levels of competition. You are no longer required to mount your entries to black board. However, there are still steps required to make sure your work is properly labeled and judged, protected from damage and that your collaborators are properly credited.

First, you will need to decide if you are going to invest in clear plastic envelopes or use any number of paper envelopes commercially available.

If you use paper, we suggest you try and find an envelope with clasp closure system, not an adhesive one. Remember, your entry will be opened and closed many times during its judging.

If you use a paper envelope, attach an entry code label permanently to the exterior of the envelope. Then attach another entry code label to the back of each piece of the entry. A loose copy of the entry form should also be included inside the envelope with the entry. Be sure to clearly identify and label all components of the entry.

Using a plastic envelope offers many advantages. Since they are translucent there is no need to affix an entry code label to the exterior of the envelope. Simply include two loose copies of the entry form inside the plastic envelope with the entry and attach an entry code label to the back of each component of the entry.

If you enter a three dimensional piece, attach an entry code label to the back or bottom of each component. In addition, provide a professional color photograph of the entry in the envelope with an entry code label permanently affixed to the back of the photo. Be sure to clearly identify and label all components of the entry.

All video and audio assets for American Advertising Awards Student Division entries must be submitted as digital upload via the online software. DVDs and CDs are NO LONGER ACCEPTED and will not be judged. Acceptable digital video formats are, .mov, .mpg, .mp4, .wmv. Acceptable audio formats are .mp3, .wav, .wma. File uploads are limited to 100mb for video and 5mb for audio.

This entry procedure applies for all TV commercials, radio commercials, infomercials, webisodes, Internet commercials, and digital summaries for ambient media, online/interactive, app and integrated campaign categories.
